Cancellation policy

Cancellation right.

You are entitled to cancel this contract within fourteen days without giving further reasons. The cancellation period ends after fourteen days beginning on the date of the contract closing. To exercise your cancellation right you must inform our agency about your decision to revoke the contract in a clear statement by letter mail or email: Bineli UG (haftungsbeschränkt), address: Tiroler Str. 12a, 22049 Hamburg, email: info@bineli.de. In order to maintain the cancellation period it is enough to send note of putting your cancellation right to use before the cancellation period is expired.

Consequences of the cancellation.

In the case of a cancellation of this contract, we are obliged to return all payments received from you including the delivery costs (excluding the additional costs that are due to your choice of a different way of delivery other than the one we are offering at the most favourable price) immediately and at the latest fourteen days from the date of receiving your note of cancelling the contract. For the payback we will use the same medium of exchange you used in the initial transfer unless we have explicitly agreed on something else; in no case we will charge a fee on this payback. If you have asked for services starting within the cancellation period, you have to pay an appropriate amount that comes up to the amount of services provided until the point of the cancellation (compared to the total extent of services that are provided in the contract).

Demand and approval to begin with the execution of services

We agree and expressly request that you begin with the ordered services in advance of the cancellation period's expiration. We realize that we lose our cancellation right with your fulfillment of the contract. Prior to the complete contractual performance the compensation for the services provided ahead of the cancellation is to be paid.
